✂✂ WE SERVE THE BEST. ✂✂

Dear Reader, That it is a pretty special time of year ≠ has come around again down at THE GREEN MAN & REGULAR FELLOWS! We've got harvest festivals and new moons, new games, new brews, and hopefully plenty of new members on the way too (see below). The highlight (are they not all highlights?! .ed) is our Nine-holes tournament (no we haven't had a small golf course installed so don't bring your clubs as well as your maces!), experienced players will know how addictive it can be. The first hole will be teed off (only Joking), filled, on the weekend of the 30th of September, so sign up on the list (is in the Game's Room), if you want to par take! The prize is a full slap up meal on Sunday, with all the trimmings. That weekend we will be serving our trademark meal, white hot meat with rich gravy.

Competition Time!

Look at those pillars, solid.

IN OTHER NEWS OUR BARMAN, is now back from his holidays , with a golden shimmering tan, a sombrero and not too many tropical diseases (we hope!) Seriously, we are always looking for new help behind the bar, cocktail ideas welcome (not too strong!) knowledge mixed from the shores of North Africa or Grease, we hope to be able to offer some great new mixes like Grog Smasher, Green Sphinx, and The Ivy Leaf. Mmmm...mixology

(ask the Landlord for more details)

Of course, we are also expanding our range of drinks for those with a more refined pallet, Gypsy's smile is an ale with hints of oak and a cheesecake finish, luxury at an affordable price! (ask the Landlord for more details)

RIP - Lewis
"chunk"
Mathers (78 years)

Cheers Chunk!

Although its not all good news - This weekend will see the wake of dear chunk, a friend and a valued customer for 15 years. In his prime hit some the highest scores in baseball, we will salute him with four minute silence. We will also install a plaque on the bar to celebrate his life.

We need a forth member to cover all bases. Whos on first. Tick the box to join in

CELEB GOSSIP! BY the Landlords Duaghter

This week saw Jamie Theaksons (banging on about bag puss again), Esther Rantzen (she wanted to get completely smashed!, but she ran out of rounds and we 'strongly advise' people to have a 'moderate' drink), and a relative of Judy Garland, come into GMARF. But trumping all over them we had a visit from

MR KITCHEN NIGHTMARE..

I'D LOVE TO STAY AND CHAT, BUT I

REALLY

Fact!

Lobster face, Gordon Ramsay popped in the g'man for a pint a quick sarnie.

Actual Quote

"The Green!Man serves the best, I am sure of that, I think the white bread and pickle sandwiches are an under-rated classic, the Green!Man is: bringing it back with style.

Next week I think I'll try your moon cakes, Bye."

Top Tip!

So if you needed another reason to visit, don't do what the G-RAM did and pump yourself full of Botox, COME TO THE G-MAN FOR A classic Detox!

(facial treatments are available out the back, ask the landlord for more details)
